

Autumn term- Characteristics of Effective Learning- Playing and Exploring

Playing and exploring is a key characteristic of learning which will support your child to develop in the Foundation Stage. Please see the examples above.

If your child has done something wonderful at home that relates to playing and exploring that you would like to share with us, please fill out what they have done in one of the 'proud clouds' and send it into school for us to celebrate together.

